

Tips for Avoiding Fraud in the Wake of Disaster Attorney General E. Scott Pruitt

Price Gouging

In counties where the Governor or the President has declared a state of emergency:

- During the declaration of emergency and for 30 days thereafter, price increases of 10% or more on most goods and services are prohibited.
- During the declaration of emergency and for 180 days thereafter, price increases of 10% or more on dwelling units, storage space and goods related to home repair or restoration are prohibited.
- Common complaints:
 - Food and Water
 - Hotel Rooms and Apartments
 - Rental Cars
 - Building Materials

Home Repair Fraud

- Ask for referrals from people you trust.
- Use local contractors.
- Obtain written estimates and references.
- Check out contractors with the Public Protection Unit or Better Business Bureau.
- Make sure roofers are registered with the Construction Industries Board (405-521-6550 / www.ok.gov/cib/).
- Insist on a written agreement that includes all relevant details for the project.
- Be wary of contractors who:
 - Solicit door-to-door
 - Require substantial up-front payment or request payment in cash
 - Use high pressure or aggressive sales tactics
 - Resist the use of a written contract

Charity Fraud

- Donate only to charities that you know and trust.
- Be wary of charities that seem to have been formed specifically in response to a particular disaster.
- Contact the Secretary of State to find out if the charity is registered in Oklahoma (405-521-3912 / www.sos.ok.gov/charity/).
- Ask for written information regarding the solicitor's charity.
- Listen carefully to the name of the charity. Scam artists often claim to be associated with a charity that mimics the name of a well-known organization.
- Be wary of solicitors that use high pressure or aggressive tactics, ask for donations in cash or promise prizes.

Identity Theft

 - Experian – 1-888-397-3742
 - Equifax – 1-800-525-6285
- Report lost driver's license to the Dept. of Public Safety – 405-425-2477.
- Report lost social security card to the Social Security Admin. – 1-800-269-0271.
